When Sacred and Secular Mix: Religious Nonprofit Organizations and Public Money (Religious Forces in the Modern Political World) Stephen V. Monsma

Despite Americans' traditional emphasis on the separation of church and state, both in theory and practice, few are aware of the hundreds of millions of public dollars that flow annually to religiously based nonprofit organizations. Based on a massive nation-wide survey of nearly 800 such groups, Stephen V. Monsma's important study explores the implications of this financial partnership.
