Dog Training: 25 Essential Skills for an Amazingly Well Trained and Obedient Dog or Puppy Cesar "Joshua" Stone

The goal of this book is to tackle the most common dog problems that owners face. To teach your dog the skills he/she needs to be well trained, obedient, and happy. To teach all of these skills using only positive training methods. We want to teach our dogs in a way that is fun and engaging for them. It has been scientifically proven that dogs learn best through these means. This book will never ask you to harm or strike your dog, because it's inhumane and that's not what we believe in. The problem with physical punishment of dogs; is that it is after the fact. Your dog cannot make the association between the wrong behavior and the punishment. Rather, we need to set our dogs up to be successful. We need to channel this energy into a positive outlet and then reinforce. This book strives to teach your dog these vital skills in the most effective manner possible. This book excels in teaching these skills:
