A Family Affair: My Bad Boy Foster Brother Abriella Blake

When my parents told me they were thinking of fostering a boy from inner-city Baltimore I thought they were losing their minds...

But when the social worker's car pulled up I nearly fainted at the sight of the man who stepped onto our sidewalk—tall, muscular, covered in tattoos and piercings...he didn't look like a foster boy at all.

And the way he looked at me—like a lion eyeing its prey—made me feel uncomfortably turned on.

I can't believe my parents would put me in this impossible situation, a self-conscious and awkward 18-year old girl with a totally off-limits and totally hot guy living one door down the hall from me.

This is sure to end badly.

A Family Affair is a full length contemporary new adult romance novel. Content is suitable for adults only, contains graphic sexual content, harsh language, and mature themes.
