This Appalachian version of the Red Riding Hood tale is set in Bedford County, Virginia, during the Revolutionary War period. Young Meg Reddingoode, clad in her mother's red cloak and carrying a basket of supplies over the mountain to her grandmother, encounters a strange young man in the woods. She declines his offer to accompany her, so he goes on ahead. When Meg knocks on the door of her grandmother's remote cabin, someone grabs her arm and drags her inside. Meg soon finds herself and her grandmother at the mercy of a Tory. How can they overpower him?
