Selected Stories (Modern Classics (Penguin)) Saadat Hasan Manto

This collection brings together several notable stories by Saadat Hasan Manto. These stories capture a time long gone, when India rattled from the void left behind by the British. These stories speak about Manto's feelings about the Partition, and how he perceived its effects on the people around him. A true humanist, Manto believes in the strength of mankind and its ability to prevail even in the face of insurmountable peril. This collection introduces a master from the past to a new generation, showing them the lines he contributed in the powerful play called history. This book includes:

Toba Tek Singh

The Dog of Titwal

The Last Salute

The Return

Doing God's Work

It Happened in 1919

The Price of Freedom

The Woman in the Red Coat

The New Constitution

Free For All

Mozail

The Assignment

Colder Than Ice

The Dutiful Daughter

Three Simple Statements

Babu Gopi Nath

A Question of Honour

The Room with the Bright Light

A Man of God

Mummy

The Wild Cactus

By the Roadside

Kingdom s End
