Cultural Writing. Art. An exploration of the ideas, themes and solutions that re-occur in the work of graphic designers Paul Neale and Andrew Stevens. They form GTF "Graphic Thought Facility" and their work profiled here includes: posters, marketing material, packaging, publications, invitations, exhibitions graphics, etc. "This small book, the third in the 'Directions' series from Swiss publisher Capelli, surveys ten years' work of the London studio Graphic Thought Facility. GTF has no instantly recognizable hallmark style, more an impressive consistency of method. In its projects, the possibilities and limitations of the chosen method are always paramount, as this book well demonstrates. The commissions were laid out on the studio floor and photographed on the same scale, so that each page is a window on a big photographic set, which you see in its entirety only at the end of the book. Text and captions are in a separate booklet"--Abitare 412.
