Many of our youth struggle with understanding what they are called to do or why they are here. According to Romans 8:19, creation is eagerly waiting for the children of God to manifest, once they know the purpose for which they were created. In Creation is Waiting for You! Hanna Assefa challenges young people everywhere to live up to their potential to be a solution to the world's problems, to be a light, and become leaders, using their present circumstances as a starting point. With her no-nonsense style that challenges, instructs, and motivates, she uses scripture and biblical stories to highlight why this is not just important, but necessary for the advancement of society and the expansion of God's kingdom. Tackling the challenges of disinterest, disillusionment, and despair, which often strike our youth, Hanna guides the reader in understanding that everyone is responsible for change and that all youth can be empowered to rise up against obstacles by following the example set by many familiar characters from the Bible. This book gives the youth practical solutions, advice, and tools to help them live a life that is abundant and prosperous. It is for any young person who wants to maximize his or her life potential, and for parents, mentors, and youth leaders who want to lead the next generation with compassion and understanding.
