Angel In My Arms Victoria Gray

Amanda Emerson must break her cousin, a notorious double agent, out of a Confederate prison before his imminent execution. She's a skilled Union operative, but for this mission, she needs a man. Even a man who looks and acts like a Viking warrior. Caught with Rebel battle plans and set for a hanging, Union spy Steve Dunham isn't about to refuse the assistance of the sable-haired beauty who shows up at the jail and slips him the keys to his cell. Of course, she's there for a reason besides saving his neck - he's the key to her plan. He may be trading one noose for another, but he won't forsake her. The spoils of his victory will be her surrender. And the terms of surrender will be sweet.
