Anna lives the typical professional lifestyle; schedules, precision and efficiency, all wrapped up in a business suit, fully loaded BMW, and a double tall skinny chai tea latte. Such a perfect package, however, cannot be fully bound at all times – so when she finds herself bound in a wholly different manner – sexually and literally – she enjoys a level of freedom she rarely otherwise experiences.

Reading Sample:

It had happened so fast – he had been waiting for her when she returned to her apartment, and without time to protest, she had been led into a back room, blindfolded and gagged. His hands had made quick work of her clothing, stripping her bare in moments and only then attaching the cold leather bands to her hands and feet, tightening the chains that required her legs to remain well apart and her arms level with the floor. It was a posture which felt far too revelatory, far too intimate; a sensation only heightened by the visual sensory deprivation. In spite of it all, she had to confess, it was something of a turn on.

This novella contains over 3,500 words of contemporary paranormal romance and sensual bdsm.
