Radio Fragments Mark Brendle

This description should be concise and serious. It should inform potential buyers about the value of the product. RADIO FRAGMENTS consists of ninety-one prose poems. Of that, at least, we can be sure. A male and female fight inside a car. Riot police take the streets. Sleeping dogs lie. It explores themes. Or not. Place it under table legs or in dirty backpacks. It is a collection of words describing itself and possibly other things. It will one day decay into radio waves along with everything else. [a sentence describing its merits soothes you, promises you profundity]. Created in an offshore factory by absentfaced expendables. Released into the wild circa 2012. The description continues...
