How to organise and operate a small business in Australia John W English

The small business sector is, collectively, the biggest business in Australia. New ventures are continually being launched and the successful ones provide hope and a promise of satisfaction to all those who long to be their own boss. Previous editions of this text have been the guidebook for many of these successful business owners. Since its first publication, the small business environment has become vastly more complex, and successive editions have recognized and responded to these changes. This ninth edition is updated to include information on internet marketing and the tax system.
