Bullies are bad news! Dog with A Bone serves up some "good old fashioned" vigilante justice. The story is about a man by the name of Sunny Kruzik, who was teased and tormented while growing up. It's no secret that there is a "bully epidemic" in the world today. Words of wisdom, from Sunny's grandmother and the constant bullying that invaded his youth, molded him into the retributive, modern-day bully punisher that he has become. Sunny and his faithful yellow lab, Babe, view the lenient Canadian laws in a somewhat different fashion than the norm. He deals with the miscreants of society in his own twisted, chilling way! With a child serial killer on the loose, it's a race against time and the police, as Sunny goes about "his business". His shopaholic girlfriend Geena, and his loving parents are completely unaware of the double life that he leads. The police know that they have a person of interest, who seems to be doing their job and who they would love to interview, but have trouble locating him. As the story unfolds, on the streets of the beautiful, west coast metropolis of Vancouver, British Columbia, it delivers new hope to the countless victims and their families who have been let down by the justice system. Dog With A Bone packs a "full house" of delightful revenge to enjoy with your coffee. Bullies beware!
