Excerpt from The Flat Hat Club and the Phi Beta Kappa Society: Some New Light on Their History

In going through the letters and manuscripts of St. George Tucker, which form part of the collection of his grand-daughter, Mrs. Cynthia B. T. Coleman, I came across a little memorandum book kept by him, when he was a student at William and Mary College. In this book I discovered the formal "testimony of friendship of the society," or, as it might be called, the certificate of membership in the society. In a second memorandum book I found a catalog of the books which the Reverend Mr. Gwatkin suggested should be purchased for the Club library. Later I found letters of Thomas Jefferson, and of Thomas McAuley, relative to the early history of the Phi Beta Kappa. It is with the hope that some additional light may be thrown upon the history of college fraternities in the United States, that I present this material in the present form.

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just minor students that has reading's spirit or real their leisure activity. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
