The online resource center provides a wealth of resources for the music education student and is included with all new copies of the text at no additional charge. This site includes professionally produced audio files of over 60 songs from the text. This edition contains many new songs, including some from Latino cultures. You can download the files to any MP3 player or computer, which not only helps you become familiar with the music but also gives you a head start on creating your own music library. In addition, new video segments show students in the classroom setting, providing future educators with real-life example of how these techniques are utilized in class.
