Can Tammy Sheaffer find the happiness she desperately seeks? Ever since she was six years old and saw her mother abducted from their home by a man with piercing eyes and a black beard, she has lived in fear the man was also after her. Because of that incident she was forced to move from her comfortable Midwest town and live in a cramped apartment behind an inner-city church in Seattle. Twenty years later Tammy returns to her childhood home in Moriah, Missouri, where this nightmarish event took place, to try and find answers to her questions. Several “accidents” happen to Tammy making her wonder if the man with the piercing eyes has finally found her. During her stay in Moriah she finds happiness in an unexpected way. This fast-moving adventure-romance novel will take you into a mysterious cave, through a tornado and, like Abraham in the Bible, to a heart-wrenching encounter with God on another Mt. Moriah.
