"Genesis": I Know What I Like Armando Gallo

Softcover book, Special Limited Reprint 1987, 174 pages, profusely illustrated with b/w & color photos. From an Amazon reviewer: "Photographer Armando Gallo has followed Genesis from their early days to the present, and given us a photo document and interesting text of their lives and career. It includes rare family photos and lots of breathtaking rare concert shots that make for a collectors Genesis dreambook. There is also a complete discography including singles and import singles and other differently released music and projects any of them worked on as guest musicians. This includes rare non-album tracks and "B" sides as well in case any of you Genesis audiophiles are looking for them! Mr Gallo has also traced what other bands each member has been in before Genesis. These are rare albums too, folks! You will love this book!"
