This book is not for everyone as it fictionally addresses an issue that bears its ugly head far too often. Active shooters have turned this country into a stage for political battles intent on taking firearms out of the hands of honest citizens, ignoring the monsters that wield deadly weapons.

This is not a book about vampires, werewolves, supernatural romance, romance, love or a self help book. It's a fictional story about a young man caught up in the deteriorating Washington political arena. Washington politicians ignoring their oath to support and defend the Constitution of the United States intentionally lie, conceal and misdirect the public to advance an agenda that is un-American as apple pie in Communist Russia.

One character in this book is young James Kendt, working as an Aide for a Washington elitist whose agenda is to strike the 2nd Amendment down. To achieve this, James' boss Senator Karr, must chip away at the foundation, eroding the Bill of Rights and ultimately the rights of the people. Senator Karr's agenda, not solely his, has been influenced by outside sources that have cultured his political rise.

I'm by far not a professional writer or ever will be. I started slapping keys on my computer and this is what I came up with.

Oath of Office.

I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter: So help me God.
