The Man Who Rose from the Sea (Angel Detectives #2): An Angel Time Travel Fantasy Romance Eve Paludan, Suzanne Wilson

Angel detective Cody Bliss and his new partner, Nate Towers, must time travel to 1955 where they will battle Dark Angels in order to reclaim the life and spirit of Jewel, a Navy widow.

Almost sixty years ago, Jewel died under tragic circumstances. In the present day, her wandering ghost spirit haunts the Point Vicente lighthouse in Southern California. Her untimely death, possibly at her own hand, alters the fate of many people. Now Cody and Nate must discover how Jewel died, and prevent it from happening again.

Also, Jewel's guardian angel, Helene, went missing. Was she killed by Dark Angels, or did she go with them willingly? Their evil ilk are everywhere and the clock is ticking—the angel detectives must keep Jewel alive past May 7th, in order to change history for the good of the world.

Nate, who lost his life in 1941 at Pearl Harbor, will use the body of Luke, a young Coast Guardsman who has been in love with the widow Jewel for years. Sadly, Jewel's heart is still grieving over Nate, her former husband, and her mind is fixated on dangerous thoughts. Luke is hindered by a dark secret of his own.

Cody and Nate must change the past in order to save the future. Nate must also yield to Luke, whose body he is using, to help save her from the most evil forces imaginable. Luke is thrilled to have a chance with Jewel for a match made in Heaven. Unfortunately, the Dark Angels do not want Jewel to live.

Only two brave angel detectives on a mission from God can set things right--the fate of many rests in their heavenly hands.

It's a good thing that Cody has a Terrible Swift Sword. He's going to need it!

THE MAN WHO ROSE FROM THE SEA is 45,000+ words and is the second novel in the Angel Detectives series.
